BEST ROLLS—The sleek, ageless lines of this 1929 Rolls Royce touring car was the best Rolls in the show last year at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance, now called the Gwenn Graham Concours. Foreign and domestic, sports and touring, vintage and classic—all types will be represented at the 19th annual show at Pebble Beach on Saturday, May 31. A similar 1929 Rolls has been entered by Lester Braunstein.

Dedini, Clegg Contribute To Gwenn Graham Concours

Charles Clegg will continue the custom started many years ago by his late associate Lucius Beebe of providing the distinguished judges for the May 31st Pebble Beach Concours with champagne.

Clegg will be arriving in his private railroad car "The Virginia City."

This year's Concours has been named in honor of the late Mrs. Gwenn Graham, long-time publicity director at Pebble Beach, and originator of the event in 1950.

Judges from the Monterey Peninsula area include Fred Talbot, Jr. of Pebble Beach; Dr. Max Panzer, Pebble

Peach; Will Shaw, Carmel; Kevin Walsh, Carmel Valley and Charles Chayne, Pebble Beach.

This year's poster cartoon was done by Eldon Dedini of Carmel, one of America's foremost cartoonists, who says it takes a lot of courage to do all the bad cartoons to get to the good ones.

He ought to know for he works on 10 to 20 ideas a week, selling one out of every eight or so of his brainchildren. His stature may be shown by the fact that he has been named Gag Cartoonist of the Year three times — in 1958, 1961 and 1964.

Cultural Commission Hears Mayor, Ponders Library, Post Office Move To Sunset; Approves Restaurant

By GUNNAR NORBERG

Should a restaurant be approved at the city-owned Sunset Center?

Should the post office be located there when next year it is compelled to find substantially larger quarters?

Should the Harrison Memorial Library be moved to Sunset Center and housed in a new and larger building?

These questions did not appear as items on the Carmel Cultural Commission's agenda when it convened at City Hall last Monday evening, but they took center stage as the meeting progressed.

The Commission did have before it just one application for a restaurant at Sunset, and it did act to approve that application unanimously with the five members of Commission who were present, voting the approval — D. Paul Medalie, Mrs. Patricia Faul, Dr. James Gilman, James Pruitt, and Mrs. Lois Renk. (The two absent commissioners were Mrs. Dorothy Green Chapman and Ashton Stanley).

The restaurant applicant was Tom King, owner of a restaurant in Capitola, who was not present when his Sunset Center application came up for consideration. King had stated that he would need another room besides Room 4 (now used by Carmel Graphics), to put his proposed restaurant into operation.

This second wanted room was identified as Room 5, which is across the hall from Room 4. Also to be committed to the restaurant use would be half the elevated patio just north of the entrance to Sunset auditorium, and the large kitchen on a lower level. Some kind of dumb-waiter arrangement was to connect the rooms above — 4 and 5 — with the kitchen, which is not directly underneath either of those rooms.

Basic rent specified by the Cultural Commission in its request for restaurant applicants, could have been as little as $100 per month for each of four winter months, and as little as $150 per month for each of four winter months, and as little as $150 per month for other months.

An alternative percentage-of-gross-sales formula was specified, if more rental could be derived by that means.

Eventually, however, the matter of rent was reserved by the Commission for committee study. Next, the restaurant application will have to be brought before the Carmel Planning Commission for the "use permit" which would have to be issued by that body before a restaurant could be established at Sunset. Later the City Council will presumably be asked to approve a five-year lease — with the option for a five-year renewal — which was mentioned in the Cultural Commission's restaurant specifications.

Before the restaurant proposal came up, Commission Chairman Medalie invited Mayor Barney Laiolo to address the group.

In the course of his remarks, he said the "ten-cents-per-square foot" monthly rental formula which the Commission is using as a yardstick "is not a practical figure" because even that modest rental-calculation device is substantially reduced simply because the city "pays out $700 a month for utilities" at Sunset, for which tenants make no reimbursement to the city.

In his reference to the restaurant proposal for Sunset, he said a restaurant there "could be a tough nut to crack" and that while there could be merit in the proposal, the restaurant could also turn out to be "an awful dud."

Mayor Laiolo's main remarks concerned different matters.

He mentioned the possibility of the post office being relocated at the east side of the north playground at Sunset, if such a concept

Carmel To Honor Military Dead In Devendorf Plaza On May 30

Carmel will pay its traditional honors to the dead Friday morning at 11 as city officials, American Legionnaires and retired officers of the uniformed services gather in Devendorf Plaza for the annual memorial service conducted by Carmel Post 512 of the American Legion.

The program will open with color bearers of the Carmel American Legion and of the World War I Veterans organization advancing the colors while the Carmel High School band under the direction of Henry Avila plays.

A firing squad from the United States Coast Guard Station in Monterey, under the direction of Chief Boat-swains Mate James Figueira, will then fire a salute to the dead.

Brief addresses will be given by Commander-elect

Pat O'Malley of the Carmel Legion Post, by Mayor Barney Laiolo of Carmel, by Chief Figueira of the Coast Guard, and by Brigadier General Douglas Keeney, USAF Retired.

Honored guests who will be presented to the gathering will include Admiral C. W. Fisher, Major General Robert McClure, Colonel Raymond Siegrist, and Jack Boardman, Carmel's last surviving veteran of the Spanish American war.

Wreaths will be placed on existing monuments to the dead by Mrs. Florence Gilmore and Mrs. Mary O'Malley, wives of the outgoing commander and commander-elect, of the Carmel Legion Post, and by Mrs. Thelma Shope of the ROA Ladies and by Captain William McCullough, USAR, of the Reserve Officers Association.

Vern A. Allred

Vern Allred New City Fire Inspector

Carmel has a new chief fire inspector.

He is Vern A. Allred, who joined the Carmel Fire Department on May 16 from the Seaside Fire Department.

Allred will make fire safety inspections to make certain that Carmel remains the fire-safe city it now is, and will concentrate on Carmel merchants in his inspections.

"Too many times a businessman is too close to his establishment to see fire hazards," Allred said, "and without placing any hardship on the merchant, we will make periodic inspections to spot danger areas."

Asked about residential inspections, Allred said that inspections would be made at the request of the homeowner, although every effort would be made to cover the entire city during Fire Prevention Week held each October.

Allred is a graduate of Monterey Peninsula College, where he majored in fire science, and has been a professional fire fighter for more than 15 years.

Married to the former Roberta Norbeck of Pacific Grove, the couple has five children—Debrah, 17; Vern Jr., 15; Richard, 11; Kimberly, 3, and Terry, 2.

He is an elder of the Church of the Latter Day Saints and a Sunday School Supervisor of the Seaside Ward.

Girl Scouts Seek Fall Volunteers

Monterey Bay Girl Scout Council is recruiting volunteers for fall. Leaders are needed for all age levels.

Brownies are 2nd and 3rd graders, juniors are 4th, 5th and 6th graders, cadettes are junior high age and seniors are high school students.

The Community Chest supports all scouting which is basically a character-building organization and is open to all girls between the ages of 7 and 17.

The girls learn and do good, purposeful things from week to week while having fun and companionship with girls their own age. Many parents are Girl Scout leaders as it provides a way for them to be with their own youngsters while contributing in a worth-while manner to the community at-large. Those who are not parents find the involvement with scouting to be a challenging and rewarding one.

The Monterey Bay Girl Scout Council is located in Monterey and would welcome any adult who has some time to give to the community. Their telephone number is 375-7395.

St. Matthew Passion At Carmel Bach Festival On July 20 and 27

The performances of the St. Matthew Passion on July 30 and 27 at this year's 32nd annual Carmel Bach Festival will be distinguished in two principal ways from previous festival performances.

First, the Passion will be sung in the original German. Salgo says there are persuasive arguments for giving the Passion in the language of the audience but we have decided this year to experiment with Bach's own language. It is important in the whole amazingly careful relationship which Bach established between the sounds of Picander's German text and his music.

Second, Salgo will for the first time use a small baroque organ for most of the recitatives (with a larger organ, as before, in the choruses.)

This year's Matthew Passion will be, as in 1962 and 1965, absolutely complete.

As before, Salgo will pay special attention to the placement of his forces (divided choruses), the types of instruments employed, and the varying size of the ensemble.

Soloists for this year's performances will include James Schwabacher as the Evangelist, Thomas Paul as Jesus, and Marie Gibson, Joanna Simon, Leo Goeke and Richard Clarke.

In the performance of July 27 Douglas Lawrence will sing the role of Jesus.

For ticket information and brochure please write Carmel Bach Festival, Box 503, Carmel. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope.

Wray Joins Witter Monterey Office

R. Douglas Wray has joined the Monterey office of Dean Mitter & Co. as an account executive.

Accredited by the New York Stock Exchange, Wray will handle individual brokerage accounts for Monterey area residents.

Prior to joining Dean Witter, Wray was a Flight Operations Supervisor for Flying Tiger Lines. He received his bachelor's degree in math and economics from Augustana College and served in the U. S. Army.

WINNING CRAB BAG — Pebble Beach Chef Edouard Platel (left) of the Del Monte Lodge put together an irresistible crab delectable which won for him the 2nd place in the Chef's Own Specialty Event at the first annual Crab Cooking Olympics in San Francisco this week. Presenting the award to Chef Platel is Richard Swig, president of the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau at the Awards Luncheon held at DiMaggio's Restaurant May 20th. Chef Platel pitted his skills against 16 other chefs from throughout the United States and Canada in this mouth watering competition. The winner in this event was Dave Gordon of Baltimore, with Ralf Kalenka of Seattle, third.

Kiwanis Hear Russell

The Carmel Kiwanis, meeting at the Pine Inn on Thursday, heard Lieutenant Commander Earl H. Russell of the Naval Postgraduate School and a veteran of Vietnam, outline a non-military solution to war.

Commander Russell declared that nations must establish a community of interest, with each nation removing from its internal entity those problems that today bring dissension and strife throughout the world.

But the key to the problem is the development throughout the world of managerial expertise, of which the United States has an abundance — in fact, a monopoly.

Russell advocates we stop wasting our vital resources in putting out brush fires and treating symptoms and apply ourselves to the analysis of the problems and the subsequent allocation of our resources and those of co-operating nations to the relief of the distress and misery which exists in the world and which bring about our wars.

Avis Finds Pine Cone Ad Helps

There's at least one firm in Carmel that has found an ad in the Pine Cone brings results.

The "We Try Harder" auto rental company has an office tucked away in the Carmel Plaza complex, and for a while there it looked as though people thought the "Avis" sign on the door had something to do with selling canaries or parakeets (the Latin isn't quite correct, but that's poetic or journalistic license).

Then Avis, the "Try Harder" people took an ad in the Pine Cone.

Business boomed. Went up more than one-third.

That was in our Bach Festival edition last year.

Since that time they have advertised from time to time, and each time their ad appears, business goes up, and mostly stays there.

An ad in the Pine Cone really gets results.

Ask Avis, the people in second place who have to try harder.

SUB VISIT — The Navy submarine USS Valdor visited Monterey last week, and Pine Cone publisher Allman Cook was among those invited on a cruise and dive aboard the craft. Cook took the pictures in this series.

COMING UP — This view from the control tower of the sub shows the undersea craft with decks almost awash as it comes up from its dive. The Valdor, commissioned in 1948, was one of the first "Guppy" snorkel attack-type subs.

CROWDED QUARTERS — Submarines do nothing to improve the mental outlook of people who suffer from claustrophobia. This forward torpedo room is a perfect example of the cramped spaces aboard a sub. The Valdor, through a series of overhauls, is the latest in fast, modern diesel-electric submarines.

Variety and Surprises Keynote Carmel Art Association Gallery in Summer

by Louise Cook

The Carmel Art Association on Dolores Street displays paintings to suit every conceivable taste in art, from the ultra realistic to the completely abstract, and a walk through its galleries is always rewarding.

It can be full of surprises, too.

In "Floral Patterns," Elise Beaton has shown a complete departure from her usual peaceful rural scenes. This gay flower painting is done in geometric patches of brilliant and exciting color.

Another surprise — Keith Lindberg has left the blinding sunlight, the usual setting for his figure studies, for the cool green shade of the forest in "Into the Trees."

In an extravagant use of precious and semi-precious material, Beth Garcia creates exquisite miniature figures. A gold frog, enamelled green, sits on an onyx lily pad, to name only one of several gems.

In the swirling colors of "Eye of the Hurricane," Sophie Harpe achieves a feeling of chaos.

Linford Donovan can always be depended upon for a lively and penetrating portrait. This time a "Greek Fisherman's Wife."

The pale monotone of "The Shell" by Ann Rugh is relieved by the bright scarf in the subject's hand.

John Cunningham gives his "Point Lobos" all the natural force and impact this rugged area offers in his pure colors and spontaneous creativity.

The summer season sees the discontinuance of the one-man shows, and for this period each year the gallery has a wealth of variety to offer.

Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

Now and then we buy a book without really wanting to, but we have requests for it. Such a book was Shellah Graham's Confessions Of A Hollywood Columnist.

It's the tell-all type of book, but she tells it as she sees it, and does it very well. If you want the dope on the movie people you will want to read this book. It's all here, man.

Another light book is Sorry I Kept You Waiting, Madam, by Vidal Sassoon.

It is the autobiography of the famous hairstylist, who charges so much for a styling that only the rich or famous can afford to go to him.

In one place he tells what a fashion authority said to him, which was "Some hairdressers follow fashion blindly, but you must never do that. It would be better for you to miss out on a season rather than go along with a trend you don't like."

It is only when hairdressers begin to follow this advice that the rest of us will cease to look as if we had been turned out on an assembly line.

Nelson Rockefeller has a new book Unity, Freedom & Peace.

In it he discusses such varied topics as Problem Solving in the Cities, Fiscal Integrity, Crime and Rehabilitation, and the Roles of Women.

Mr. Rockefeller has been long in public service and over these years he has worked out some sane and logical solutions to our present day problems. Considering how great are these problems, let us never ignore any workable suggestions for solving them.

A new book about Greece and Rome was taken from articles in the National Geographic and published by them. It is a mixture of description and history, the whole beautifully illustrated with the color photographs for which the National Geographic is famous. Valuable homework for anyone planning to visit Greece or Rome.

Walking trips about England all mapped out, with dotted lines showing where and how to walk, and just what the walker will see as he goes along.

The thing that bothered this librarian is that the author never cuts off with some remark to the effect of just how far you have walked by this time and do you want to quit now or go on for a couple more miles?

It must be that you are supposed to judge for yourself, perhaps by counting the blisters on your aching feet. Remember that walking is good exercise!

John W. Davis is a cousin of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, and from the viewpoint of the family, he has written the story entitled The Bouviers, Portrait Of An American Family.

Of course the illustrations are photographs, some of Jacqueline when she was a child and most beautiful.

Mr. Davis covers four generations of Bouviers, the rich and the poor are all here, and all described with great objectivity.

The author shows how to use acrylics with watercolor techniques, both transparent and opaque, and how to use them also as backgrounds for work with oils. He paints pictures in each method, with the reader as an on-looker, observing and asking questions.

A valuable book for art students wanting to learn the new methods and mediums!

We shall be receiving soon a collection of new mysteries for summer reading. Be watching for them!

BOOK AMNESTY

Don't forget that one-week amnesty wiping out fines on overdue books, and for the return of those that had not been checked out.

The week-long suspension of fines will begin on June 1 and continue until June 7, at which time all books belonging to any library in Monterey County may be returned to any library without fine, no matter how long overdue they may be.

So.

Beginning June 1, all is forgiven. Bring books into libraries without embarrassment. Drop them into book-return boxes and drops knowing all the while that no notations will be added to the library's record.

Everyone is in free, so return those books. Please.

The Night They Raided Minsky's — Raucous replay of the broad comic world of Burlesque. Britt Ekland is the innocent and astonished ecstasiast. Stripper.

A Dandy In Aspie — Lawrence Harvey as a double agent — a Russian working in British intelligence. An anti-hero type film with Mia Farrow as window dressing.

Lady in Cement — Frank Sinatra and Raquel Welch should be enough without anything else, but the plot is tight, the action fast and the film worth seeing.

The Shoes of the Fisherman — A simple priest comes to Rome to become Pope and strives for peace amid the turmoil of the modern world. Anthony Quinn, Laurance Olivier, Oskar Werner, John Gielgud and Vittorio De Sica.

Charly — Experimental brain surgery changes a mentally retarded young man into a brilliant adult confronted with new and serious problems. Cliff Robertson, Claire Bloom.

The Illustrated Man — Based on three stories by

Equestrian Trials Set for Aug. 29-31

The National Three-Day Equestrian Trials for the Nation's cup will take place Aug. 29-31 at Pebble Beach.

Richard Collins, equestrian director for Del Monte Properties Company, announced that the event will be held in conjunction with the annual Pebble Beach Three-Day and preliminary three-day divisions.

Michael Plumb of New York, captain of the last three Olympic Three-Day teams, is the first to indicate he will be entering the event.

Plumb also competed in Nation's Cup competition when it was last held at Pebble Beach in 1960 prior to the Olympic Games in Rome. 2669.

Ray Bradbury, this story of a tattooed man stars Rod Steiger, Claire Bloom and newcomer Robert Drivas.

Changes — Filmed in part in Big Sur and including the songs of Judy Collins and Tim Buckley, this is a story of a dropout. Kent Land, Michele Carey star.

With Six You Get Eggroll — Doris Day and Brian Keith in a rather sophisticated, for Miss Day, comedy about a widow with three boys romancing a widower, Brian Keith, with a daughter.

Stage Review

Born Yesterday — Comedy treatment of Washington hanky panky between an uncouth junk dealer who has runs few hunks of stolen scrap into millions of dollars, his alcoholic attorney and an amenable senator. Throw in a dumb blonde who gets a smattering of education ala Tom Paine and the comedy is hilarious. Bob Lotz as the loud, arrogant junkman is outstanding. Dinner before the show. For reservations to both or either, call the Studio Theater-Restaurant at 624-1661.

Mee and Thee — Great staging, fine directing and enthusiastic acting make this comedy at the Circle Theater a fine evening's entertainment. The management will permit thigh-slapping guffaws if done with dignity and good taste, and there are many, many places in this fluffy comedy where just such action is not only called for, but necessary. Reservations at 624-1661.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"The Ins-and-Outs of Picnics"

A long weekend stretches before us. If we could be sure of the weather, the only problem would be to provide plenty of patio type food.

But with uncertainty in the air, we're suggesting dishes which can be transferred with ease from outside to indoors, or vice versa.

Let's start with a boating picnic party. Since the Monterey Marina is filled to overflowing with pleasure craft, we can't think of anything more fun than a cruise on the bay. This means sea-faring fare. If it rains, indoors is the order of the downpour . . . if it's sunny, on deck for the hungry.

Prepare everything at home. Casseroles should be precooked and reheated in the galley. Or lacking this convenience, wrap any hot dish in double foil, newspapers and an old blanket. Each couple can contribute . . . the men bring drinks, the gals divide the food . . . or host and hostess provide all.

Boating Party Picnic

Mariners' Casserole

Curried Rice Salad

Beer Coffee Cokes

Shrimp Remoulade

Three cups cooked shrimp; chopped; 3 hard cooked eggs, chopped; 2 t. minced capers; 1 t. prepared mustard; 1 T. tarragon vinegar; juice of lemon to taste; 1 minced garlic clove; 2 T. minced green onions; 1 T. minced parsley; 1 t. prepared horseradish; ¼ t. savory; 1 cup mayonnaise, salt.

Combine all and chill. Serve from bowl with plastic spreading knives. Have assorted crackers, Melba toast rounds, party rye or white sliced bread. Keep these covered in plastic bags until serving. Serves 6-8.

Mariners' Casserole

One can (1 lb. best red salmon) or equivalent in fresh poached salmon; 1 cup all purpose flour; 1 t. baking powder; 1 t. salt; 3 eggs; ½ cup bottled clear Italian-style salad dressing; 1 jar (4 oz.) cut pimiento, undrained; 1 can (1 lb.) cut green beans, drained or equivalent in cooked frozen string beans.

Drain and flake salmon; reserve liquid. In mixing bowl, combine flour, baking powder, salt, eggs, salad dressing and ½ cup reserved salmon liquid. Beat until smooth. Gently stir in pimiento, green beans and salmon; mix lightly. Pour into buttered deep 2-qt. casserole. Spread with topping. Bake at 350 F. for an hour. Do this as near departure for the wharf as possible.

Topping

In small bowl, combine ½ cup mashed potato flakes (packaged); 1 pkg. brown gravy mix; ½ cup mayonnaise; ½ cup water.

At serving garnish with canned mandarin segments and green pepper slices. Serves 6-8.

Curried Rice Salad

One and a half cup cooked converted rice; ¼ cup minced onion; 1 T. vinegar; 2 T. salad oil; ¼ t. curry powder; salt to taste.

Mix together and marinate in refrigerator about 3 hours. Then add 1 cup chopped celery; 2 cups cooked green peas and ¼ cup salad dressing. Keep chilled and serve on crisp greens. Serves 6-8.

Banana Boats

One fourth cup chopped salted peanuts; ¼ cup each, flaked coconut; confectioners' sugar, cinnamon; nutmeg; 1 can refrigerated quick crescent rolls; 2 bananas, cut in half crosswise; 1 T. lemon juice; ¼ cup, each, maple syrup and sifted confectioners' sugar.

Combine first five ingredients. Unroll crescent dough and separate into 4 rectangles. Place these on ungreased cookie sheet. Sprinkle peanut mixture over each rectangle. Dip each banana half in lemon juice, then in syrup. Place each on narrow end of dough rectangle and roll up ending with seam-side down. Pinch edges well to seal. Bake at 400 F. for about 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Cut each roll into two or four pastries. Makes 8 or 16 pastries. Wrap in foil until serving.

This nautical menu may of course be served on dry land . . . inside or out.

To give a variety of "take-along" casseroles here are two twosomes which spell togetherness. Add fruit and cheese with beverages and the beach, riverside, grassy slope or park will be your site . . . otherwise eating in a roomy station wagon isn't such a chore. Plastic covered divided paper plates to fit bamboo round trays and all those non-washable items make it a fine outing. At least your weekend guests are outside the house!

Chicken Salad Casserole

Two cups cut up canned or cooked chicken in medium pieces; 2 cups finely chopped celery; ½ cup chopped nuts; salt, pepper, paprika and grated nutmeg to taste; 1 T. grated onion; 1 cup mayonnaise mixed with lemon juice; ½ cup mushroom caps; 1 cup crushed potato chips.

Mix all but potato chips together. Put into loaf baking dish and sprinkle with Frito or potato chips. Bake 30 minutes in 375 F. oven. Serve either hot, warm or cool. Enough for 4 hearty appetites or 6 moderate ones.

Lima Bean Casserole

Two cups dried lima beans; 2 cups canned tomato sauce; ½ cup liquid from cooked beans; 2 T. grated Parmesan cheese; dash of oregano; 2 T. brown sugar; 1 clove garlic, crushed; 2 T. minced onion; ½ lb. cubed bacon; salt, pepper, paprika to taste.

Soak lima beans overnight in water to cover. Drain and simmer in fresh water until just tender but not broken up. Add garlic and onion. Do not add salt until beans have cooked 30 min. Drain and put into buttered casserole, adding ½ cup bean liquid. Add sautéed bacon, sugar, sauce and seasonings. Mix and top with cheese. Bake in 350 oven until bubbly. Wrap in double layers of foil, newspapers and old blanket! or spoon out into wide mouthed thermos jug. Keeps hot several hours. Take raw vegetables as nibblers. Remember individual paper salt and peppers; cups, napkins.

Cabrillo Festival In Seventh Season

The first Cabrillo Music Festival, in 1963, elicited critical acclaim in San Francisco as "a milestone in the Bay Region's musical history."

Each Cabrillo Festival season has had its world and/or West Coast premieres as well as a balanced presentation of seldom heard masterworks ranging from the baroque to contemporary.

The 541-seat Cabrillo College in Aptos, acoustically one of Northern California's best concert hall, houses the August performances.

The Cabrillo Guild of Music and Cabrillo College cooperate in supporting the Festival. The Guild assumes responsibility for housing musicians, promotion, ticket sales, and fund raising; the College furnishes the theater and rehearsal facilities, clerical assistance, and administrative supervision.

Gerhard Samuel, Oakland Symphony conductor, recruited a festival orchestra for the first six seasons. For its 1969 season, the seventh, the Guild has chosen the Amici della Musica, Richard Williams conducting, as the festival orchestra.

Continuing the tradition established by Maestro Samuel, the 1969 Festival will have its featured premiere: "Discovery," a symphony commemorating the Bicentennial of Portolo's expedition through California, by the contemporary Mexican composer Carlos Chavez.

Masters Concert

The following major works will be featured on the Master's Concert during the week of May 29 over K-Wave Streo (96.9) at 8 p.m.

Fri., May 30 — Mahler, Symphony No. 4 in G Major; Charles Ives, Symphony No. 1 in D Minor.

Mon., June 2 — Moussorgsky, "Pictures at an Exhibition"; Beethoven, Violin Concerto in D Major, Opus 61.

Carmel Artist Paints Digest Cover

The "sailboat" cover of the June Reader's Digest was painted by James Peter Cost of Carmel.

The painting, titled "California Coast," is an oil painting depicting sailboats heading for the finish line after rounding the leeward mark.

Cost has spent the greater part of his life living near the sea; his affinity for water shows in his seascapes, his best known paintings. His interests also include landscapes of farm and rural scenes.

Born in Philadelphia, in 1923, Cost came to Southern California in 1932. He received a B.A. in Fine Arts from U.C.L.A. in 1950 and a Master's Degree from the University of Southern California in 1959.

He taught art in Los Angeles schools from 1950-1964. In 1964 he gave up a career in teaching to devote full time in painting.

Cost lives with his wife, Betty Jo, and their three children in Carmel, where he owns an art gallery specializing in seascapes.

Christian Science Radio Program

Where can strength of character be found? "Facing Up to One Aspect of Problem Drinking" is the title of next Sunday morning's program on the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You." It will be broadcast over station KGO at 7:15, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45. The program shows how the Bible can give everyone a chance to rediscover his true selfhood and strength of character.

Bahai's Will Observe Death of Baha'u'llah

The members of the Baha'i Faith and their friends will gather on the Carmel Beach at Ocean Avenue at 2 a.m., Thursday, May 29, to commemorate the anniversary of the death of Baha'u'llah, the Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i Faith.

Baha'u'llah, claimed to be the One Who brought the laws to govern a united humanity at peace in the long awaited age when, as promised by Isaiah: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore." He died in Akka, Palestine, in 1892. His teachings have spread to over 311 countries and territories and have been translated into 450 languages.

The local observance with prayers and meditation between the morning hours of 2 and 4 a.m. will be repeated in more than 26,000 localities where Baha'is reside around the world.

Applications Available for Integrated Summer Day Camp, 'Camp Amigos'

Applications are now available for children who wish to attend Camp Amigos, an integrated summer day camp for children of the Monterey Peninsula.

Camp Amigos will open its second season on Monday, July 21, on the grounds of All Saints' Day School in Carmel Valley. Four one-week sessions will be held for children 8 to 11½ years old who are presently enrolled in the second through the fifth grades.

The first three sessions, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., will feature sports, crafts, swimming, music and cook-outs, with special trips to the Carmel Valley Community Pool, the beach, and Saddle Mountain Ranch. Thursday nights there will be an overnight camp on the school grounds.

The final week, Aug. 11-15, Camp Amigos will shift to an over-night camp at the Big Sur campgrounds owned by All Saints' Church. This final session will be limited to 35 children, 10½ to 11½ years old, who will enter the sixth grade in September.

There is a registration fee of $1 per child for the first three sessions, and $2 for the week at Big Sur. The camp provides lunches and snacks during the week, plus dinner and breakfast on over-nights. Campers will be taken by school bus to Big Sur, but otherwise parents are responsible for transportation to and from the camp.

Carmel and Monterey parents interested in the program may contact Mrs. Jack Brewer, 624-6906, for more information and applications. Campers will be accepted on a first-come basis as long as space is available.

Although it uses the facilities owned by All Saints' Church, Camp Amigos is non-sectarian. It receives financial support from many churches and community service organizations in this area, including the Monterey Kiwanis and Rotary clubs.

Additional funds are needed from parents and interested individuals to meet the expenses of the camp, which run to approximately $15 per week per child. Donations, which are tax deductible, may be made out to "Camp Amigos" and mailed to the finance co-chairmen, Dr. Rolf Johnsen, 993 Cass St., Monterey, or Lou Rudolph, 801 Lighthouse Ave., Pacific Grove.

Chairman of this year's Camp Amigos Committee is Mrs. Winthrop G. Griffith of Carmel Valley, assisted by Major James Taylor of Marina, and Mrs. Ron Rico and Mrs. Thomas White of Carmel.

The directors of the camp are Dan Albert, coach at Monterey High School, and his wife, Joanne. They will be aided by 11 teen-age counselors.

Mrs. Thomas McCollough of Pebble Beach and Mrs. Pearl Carey of Seaside are in charge of the camp program, and Mrs. Margaret Kolb of Carmel is assisting with counselor recruitment.

July 14-20 Set for Witness Meeting

Announcement for an International Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses was made this week by Francis Goetz, presiding minister of the Pacific Grove congregation. It is styled, "Peace on Earth" Assembly and is expected to draw 55,000 to the Dodger Stadium on July 14 through July 20.

Two other meetings are scheduled in preparation for the convention. One for the rooming work which will outline the search for rooms to house the many thousands that will converge on the city, and another organizational meeting which will organize the many departments that will be needed to run a convention of this size.

The Pacific Grove congregation will be among the delegates. "That does not mean we send a few members to represent us at the convention," Goetz stated, "but all, including women and children are delegates. They are all anxious to learn, for that is the primary purpose of the convention. Delegates are expected to come from a greater section of the United States as well as from many foreign countries."

"With violence spreading, civil rights demonstrations and counter demonstrations taking place in practically every part of the world, we look forward with much anticipation to the 'Peace on Earth' International Assembly which will teach us the right principles to live by," Goetz concluded.

Among the candidates is J. Kenneth Hicks Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Hicks of Carmel.

A speech and theatre major, Hicks has applied for work in VISTA. Grinnell students may accumulate both credits and college residence time by approved off-campus study. Hicks participated in the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre Semester the first part of this year. He has appeared in several theatre productions, while at Grinnell.

The Promised One!

"I am, I am, I am the Promised One! I am the One Whose Name you have for a thousand years invoked, at Whose mention you have risen, Whose advent you have longed to witness, and the hour of Whose Revelation you have prayed God to hasten. Verily I say, it is incumbent upon the people of both the East and the West to obey My word and to pledge allegiance to My person."

Soul Festival At St. Dunstan's

Gospel and folk music will be featured at a Soul Festival to be held at St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church in Carmel Valley on Sunday, June 8.

The outdoor entertainment program will start at 3 p.m. on the grounds of the church on Robinson Canyon road, near the mid-Valley Shopping Center.

Tickets are nominally priced and all proceeds will be used for the benefit of Camp Amigos, the summer day camp for children from throughout the Monterey Peninsula.

Seaside singers on the program include the Mountaineers and the Rev. Al Belton. Beverly Lyons, a teacher at All Saints' Day School, will direct the school chorus in folk songs.

A barbecued supper will follow the program, and a drawing will be held on a color TV set.

INDESTRUCTIBLE

U. S. Savings Bonds are synonymous with indestructibility. If you lose yours, no matter how odd the circumstances, you can get a replacement at no cost from the Treasury. Take the situation of a boy in a rural community who went out to the mailbox to get the mail. On the way back to the house, the wind blew an envelope containing a Savings Bond into the path of a rotary lawn mower. Bond and envelope were shredded. The Bond was replaced.

MEET BOB WOOD

In this recent photo, taken in the garden of their home in Greenfield, Bob Wood is shown with members of his family. From front to rear are: Amy, Kathy (whose husband is with the U.S. Army in Vietnam) and wife, Betsy. Not shown is daughter Judy, who lives in Fresno where her husband, Jim, is a teacher.

Bob Wood has a long record of service to Monterey County, including ten years as a school board member and officer and active involvement in conservation and agriculture causes.

Born in Pasadena in 1915, Bob attended Santa Paula High School and Ventura Junior College. He was graduated by the University of California at Los Angeles in 1938 with a degree in horticulture.

From 1938 to 1946 he was employed by Foster Ranches Corporation, progressing from hired hand to superintendent. He went into produce farming for himself in 1946, as a tenant farmer. Later, he purchased land and planted apricot trees. He has established a reputation as a successful grower.

Starting in 1954, he served ten years on the board of education at Greenfield, which included two terms as board president.

In 1966 he conducted a successful write-in campaign for election from the 3rd District to Monterey County Board of Supervisors. He was the 1968 chairman of that body.

He is past chairman of the Production Marketing Administration in Monterey County, past president of Tri-County Sugar Beet Growers Association, member and twice president of the Monterey County Farm Bureau.

During his service as member and chairman of the Monterey County board of supervisors, Bob has initiated or helped to implement many progressive steps in Monterey County's interests. For example, he:

- appointed the Monterey County Task Force For Action to help solve problems of unemployment;
- initiated action which prevents oil exploration and drilling in Monterey Bay and along the Monterey County coastline;
- was instrumental in helping to establish the Joint Air Pollution Control Board;
- worked to help with the acquisition of Toro Park and saving of Jack's Peak Park for the County;
- helped implement the open-space conservation measures of 1967 and 1968;
- worked to maintain Monterey County's tax rate as 11th lowest in State.

Married in 1940 to the former Betsy Dunnell, he is the father of 3 daughters (and a grandfather), and is active in civic, religious and community affairs.

Vikings Intrigue Visitors To Norway

Today's headlines may shout of new astronautical adventures to other planets, but visitors to Norway still find fascination in the Vikings' sea exploits of 1,000 years ago. Viking "hardware" was far less sophisticated than today's spacecraft but remarkably ingenious for its time, as a visit to Oslo's Viking Museum shows.

Star attractions here are the Gokstad and Oseberg longships, named for the places on the Oslofjord where they were unearthed from ancient royal burial mounds in 1880 and 1904 respectively.

The graceful Gokstad is the older ship, built about 1200 years ago and designed for deep-sea voyages with 32 oarsmen.

When Leif Erikson discovered America 500 years before Columbus, he sailed in such a vessel. The Oseberg longship was built in the early 9th century for coastal journeys in the fjords.

Both were preserved through the centuries by the blue clay and peat that covered them, and their discovery included jewelry, clothing, weapons and tools of a king and a queen, revealing the high artistic skill of the Vikings.

The longship was the

Grunsky Bill Will Protect Bay From Oil Drilling

State Senator Donald L. Grunsky, R-Central Coast Counties, has been successful in gaining the California Senate's approval of legislation aimed at protecting one of California's precious natural resources — Monterey Bay.

Senate Bill 57 which would create a sanctuary in Monterey Bay to block physical exploration and drilling for oil or gas, is expected to face strong questioning in the Assembly.

Grunsky told the Senate, that, "Monterey Bay ultimately can be the oceanographic center of the west coast and oil drilling would be inconsistent with such plans."

"If a major deposit of oil or gas were discovered in the submerged tidelands under Monterey Bay in the Counties of Monterey or Santa Cruz, it would only be a matter of time before extraction took place. We fear that oil extraction would create the danger that Monterey Bay could subsequently be destroyed by a similar tragedy which took place recently off the coast of Santa Barbara.

Bloodmobile Due In Carmel On June 6

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Carmel at the Red Cross Chapter at 8th and Dolores on Friday, June 6, from 9 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Anyone in normal good health between the ages of 21 and 60 may donate a pint of blood, and eager beavers between 18 and 21 who feel the urge to donate may do so by obtaining their parents or guardians signatures on a consent form obtainable from the Red Cross.

New, first time donors are especially urged to come to the bloodmobile. A buffet luncheon is served as a first step in restoring the red corpuscles, white corpuscles and other ingredients so that donors can donate again and again until they become one, two or 10-gallon donors, certainly worthy of achievement.

Dry Cleaning Coin Ops Described In B of A Reporter

Coin-operated drycleaning has opened up a new market for drycleaning services and has spurred total drycleaning volume, according to Bank of America.

In the latest edition of its periodical The Small Business Reporter, the bank notes that coin-operated drycleaning doesn't enjoy the public awareness that coin-op laundering does.

However, "Where the demand exists, the entrepreneur who moves in with the right combination of capital and talent can find a profitable niche for himself in an industry with growth potential."

The report includes average expenses and cost ranges, and charts the financial control of a hypothetical store. "It is not enough to know if the business is making a profit; the owner must know how his business makes a profit," according to the report.

Copies of the report may be obtained through any Bank of America branch.

Special Notices

OH, for the Merry Month of May! Make it a must to come a-larking up the winding Carmel Valley Road to our charming little Village, where one may see artisans at work—painting, sculpting, batik-ing, silk-screening, potting, as well as serving up delectable works of culinary art.

Such as Swiss Quiche Lorraine, Hot Apple Dumplings, Salubrious Sandwiches, and now, Spring Salads, a glory of garden goodness, at the Keeping Room. We offer a pristine creation of all-white-meat chicken salad with slivered almonds mingling, and a piquant pineapple cream dressing to slather all over it . . . with its own miniature loaf of hot lemon herb bread on its own little bread board.

And we have California Gourmet Salad: halves of tiny cherry tomatoes, pineapple chunks, avocado, Velveeta cheese, water chestnuts, cucumber, scallions and pecans, with caper cream dressing to set it off, and curry bread on the side. Fruit Salad in all its splendor with our own marvelous raisin orange bread. And lastly, a fresh tossed salad of sweet lettuce greens and avocado with bacon bits sprinkled through, with either Ancient Mariner or oil and lemon dressing, accompanied by hot Serendipity Bread.

Personals

SUGGESTED luncheon tour for Memorial Day Weekend: May 30, 31 and June 1. First stop, the Keeping Room for Salubrious Sandwiches or Salad Luncheon with miniature loaves of lemon herb or orange raisin bread hot out of the oven. Or hot Quiche Lorraine, or Chicken Shortcake or Baked Apple Dumplings or Frozen Mousse, with our famous hot tomato broth to start and double rich coffee from El Salvador to top it off . . . then enjoy the WEED SHOW!

Meander through the tables laden with weed arrangements by Dru and see the marvelous collection of Marian Weyer's hand-printed botanicals, and Alex Weyer's portfolio of nature studies painted in abstract form with his camera. Next view the breathtakingly beautiful Wire Etchings of Jiro Oishi, three-dimensional sculptures in fine wire such as a single daisy with a honey bee about to alight.

Go next door and see Edith Brattin's Nursery turned Gallery to show her line drawings and water colors of native weeds, with specimens, and have a cup of wild Yerba Buena punch. Alice Mehdy of the Oleander Nursery is showing her dramatic block print collection, and for those who just love the weeds in pictures or bottles but can't stand them in the garden, there is a complete display of weed control products.

Carmel Valley Village Annual WEED SHOW weed drawing or painting contest will be shown also—first, second and third prizes in 1st through 6th grades, 7th through 12th grades, and adults.

No. 6 Pilot Rd., Plaza de Flores, Carmel Valley Village. Reservations suggested — 659-2512.

ARCHITECTURAL VERSATILITY IN CARMEL

1. LOG COTTAGE for only $26,000. "No building material offers more aesthetic variety than the time-honored log" was the way House Beautiful described this one-bedroom cottage in a series of pictures several years ago. Time, loving care and some modernization have added a patina typical of Carmel. Offered reluctantly by owner leaving Carmel with recommendation as perfect full-time home for one person. Or, an ideal vacation retreat for small family willing to endure jealousy of their friends. Terms available.

2. MONTEREY'S ARCHITECTURAL heritage inspired an early Carmel builder when he constructed this home of stucco and used brick with overhanging veranda and heavy shake roof. Interior has open-beamed ceilings, knotty pine walls and first-grade oak floors. (Yes, it has a fireplace and double garage). The exterior interesting features were not sacrificed when recent owners added two bedrooms and another bath at rear. It is not new and does need some work... a challenge to a buyer with imagination. Take out a wall here, add a cupboard there, extend the veranda into a sundeck, prune a few trees to reveal the water view, redecorate and modernize according to personal desires and taste. See it now while Grandmother's old-fashioned rose bush is in blossom. Buy. Renovate. Remodel. Enjoy! Only $29,500.

It's May!

WOOD CUT IN MAY IS USELESS FOR house framing and finishing but it is perfect for axe handles which need a tough and resilient quality. If you lived in our MOUNTAIN RETREAT UP IN THE PALO COLORADO CANYON, you could select your axe handle in your own six acres of woods. You might even notice, up by the spring, that the tiny green fruits are replacing the blossoms on the group of fruit trees, if you saw it now. Would you like a brochure on this fascinating way of life which is priced at $59,500?

MAY BASKETS AND MAYPOLES

relics of our English past — charming customs now almost completely forgotten in our scientific, warlike times. But you feel you're in an Old English garden when you walk through the entry court of our NORMAN MANOR IN MINIATURE — well, not too miniature: 2400 square feet with 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, and the lot is 9500 square feet. Anyhow, it's right on Ocean Avenue, yet secluded from it by the architectural planning and the garden. It's the charm of the country, right in town. And the price is only $49,500.

MAY MOONLIGHT ON THE BEACH

in Carmel — white waves on sand made misty by the spin-drift, and always the rhythmic sound of the sea to speak reassuringly of some order in the universe (and you need reassuring if you read the daily papers!) WE HAVE A HANDSOME HOME ON SCENIC DRIVE, so handy to the sea, for only $79,000. Or if you like to be out of town with THE BEACH IN YOUR FRONT YARD and Point Lobos for a neighbor, we have what just has to be the finest and most luxurious home built around here in recent years, for $160,000. IF YOU'D LIKE YOUR OWN KEY TO POINT LOBOS, and you'd like to live in a wonderful old stone hacienda (completely updated), and if $225,000 is within your budget, INQUIRE!

PLANT CORN —

The almanacs list this as the first May chore of the new farm season. We have 32 acres, ONE OF THE PICTURESQUE OLD ESTATES IN THE MID CARMEL VALLEY, where you could plant ANYTHING — including a church or an educational institution or a horse operation or a nursery — but which is just ideal for a lucky gentleman farmer's family. The price is $6,500 per acre and you can always make an offer as the property is being offered to close an estate.

MAY IS MISTS IN TOWN

but sunshine in the Valley. Two delightful little houses have we, just right for a couple or a single person. A LITTLE ADOBE ON A HILL for $32,500. A REALLY IMAGINATIVE HOUSE (brook runs through living room, etc.) for only $37,500. May is just a great time to house hunt!

Girl Scout Camp Registration Open

Registrations are now being accepted for girls, 4th graders or older, to attend Girl Scout camp this summer.

It is not necessary to be a Girl Scout and Session I begins Monday, June 23 and ends Saturday, July 5. Session II begins Monday, July 7 and ends Saturday, July 19 at Camp Cawatre, which is located in the Arroyo Seco area of the Los Padres National Forest. Girls of junior high and high school age have a choice of special units. Back-packing will be offered in Session I only this year.

The staff of Camp Cawatre is carefully selected and well-trained. A registered nurse and a water safety instructor will be available at all times.

Each twelve-day session will be full of fun and adventure and friendships with eating and sleeping out-of-doors. Swimming will be in a sun-heated pool and there will be lots of water in the stream this year.

Anyone interested in learning more about the girls' camping opportunities may contact the Monterey Bay Girl Scout Office at 375-7395.

Training for Older Drivers Offered

Carmel's older drivers will soon have an opportunity to attend a special program to assist them in meeting the increasing demands placed on motorists using today's complex automobiles and highway systems.

The Defensive Driving Course will begin at 9:30 a.m. on June 2 at the Carmel Foundation, Lincoln at 8th.

The program, which is aimed at improving traffic safety through the education and training of older drivers, is being presented by the Monterey County Division of the California Retired Tea-

More than 150 fathers from throughout the country gathered at the Robert Louis Stevenson School during the past weekend to participate in the annual Father-Son Day.

Saturday held the opportunity for the men and their boys to team-up in golf, tennis, swimming, softball, and assorted other activities.

One could not help but notice how well the fathers bore up under the strain—we found only one or two who stole away to their son's room for a quick nap.

The day ended with an awards banquet for the 350 fathers and sons. Featured speaker, the honorable Donald M. Hart, mayor of Bakersfield, exhorted the young men to recognize the great role that athletics play in their growth into men of integrity, strength and courage.

The Outstanding Athlete Awards given were as follows: soccer, Robert Yung; cross-country, Tom Brown; water polo, William Jenkins; basketball, Jeff Elandson; wrestling, Ed Taaffe; baseball, Eric Haas; swimming, Ed Cardona; track, Sam Perkins; golf, Al Yates; tennis, John Clancy; skiing, Gary Bechtel. The Simard Riding Award was presented to Chip Love.

Press Time For New Phone Books

The new Monterey and San Benito Counties telephone directory is about to go to press, according to Don Peters local PT&T manager.

"Customers who wish to make changes in the alphabetical section (white pages) must do so before June 17," he said. "No changes, deletions or additions can be accepted after that date."

Peters advises Monterey-area residents wanting to make a change in the white pages to call the Pacific Telephone business office Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., at 375-1511.

For those who presently do not have a telephone but are planning to shortly order service—and want a listing in the new directory—the June 17 deadline will still apply.

Peters said the new phone book will be delivered to subscribers between July 24 and 28.

Market Comments

Dow Theory Business and Stock Market Forecasts letter of May 23 is still optimistic on higher prices over the next 60-90 days but they do expect irregularities.

"Continue to buy and hold stocks but be very selective in new purchases as the last half of the year may not be as good as the first half."
